

Facilities of Girl Scouts of Japan

Girl Scout House

In 1984 the headquarters of Girl Scouts of Japan was opened. It took many years of fund - raising by members. The headquarters is located in a quiet residential area in Shibuya, the center of Tokyo and has an office, meeting rooms, training rooms, and a library.

Many Girl Scouts visit the Girl Scout House from all over Japan and meet Girl Scouts from other councils.

Togakushi Girl Scout Center

Togakushi Girl Scout Center is located at the bottom of Togakushi Mountain in Nagano, about 1 hour from JR Nagano Station by bus via Togakushi Bird Line. It was rebuilt to commemorate the 80th anniversary of Girl Scouting in Japan and reopened on August 1st, 2000. Many Girl Scouts gather from all over the country and enjoy various activities such as campfire, observation on plants and stars, etc. Also Girl Scouts of Japan organizes international camps there and Girl Scouts can enjoy cultural exchanges with their counterparts from all over the world.
